It's Showtime!

In English, “showtime” is an expression that means “the action is about to start.” However, for Los Angeles Angels fans, it is the nickname of their star pitcher, Shohei Ohtani.

Ohtani is from Iwate Japan, and was a badminton player in high school. After high school, he played professional baseball in Japan. Finally, he joined the Angels in 2017. He quickly became a star because of his skills. He won the Rookie of the Year award in 2018, and won the American League MVP in 2021.

What many people do not know about Ohtani is that he is also very serious about his English studies. He can now speak English with his teammates and is also learning Spanish.

Whether you are Japanese or an American living in Los Angeles, you can be proud of Shohei “Showtime” Ohtani.
